

I'm concerned that the proposal to expand the LPFM service will take away my ability to listen to a national Christian radio broadcast from K-LOVE. I feel this station benefits so many people and makes our citizens better citizens through their message. The Lifelight Festival in Sioux Falls, SD is an example. Through the help of K-LOVE, this festival attracted hundreds of thousands of mostly young people to hear positive Christian music and testimony.